

HEADTEACHER'S MESSAGE

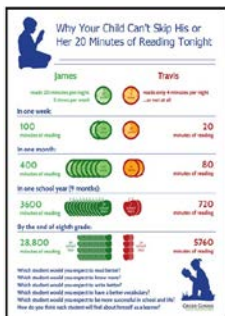

Dear parents/Carers,

This info-graphic below demonstrates clearly everything we are saying about the importance of reading at home daily. There is increasing evidence of the link between reading regularly, thinking and success and happiness in life. We are working hard to instil this love of and need to read in children which is accelerated if children read routinely at home with you.

Please think about how you are developing a reading culture with your children at home. It is after all one of the greatest gifts you can give them AND it's virtually free if you borrow books from school or the library.

Which child is like yours ... James or Travis?

Sign2Sing Charity Concert: On 9th February, TCB and friends will be holding a concert in the main hall from 2:15pm. The concert will be in aid of SIGNHEALTH, a charity which works to improve the health and wellbeing of people who are deaf, in an event called Sign2Sing. At the end of the performances there will be a collection so we can support the fantastic work of the charity. Look out for pictures of the event! If you would like to donate please remember to bring your loose change to the office! Thank you!
