

HEADTEACHER'S MESSAGE

Dear parents/Carers

As we draw the term to an end I wish to thank you for your feedback about the work of our school.

I am reporting to governors next week that we are making very good progress while improving reading across the school and that children are reading at home than ever.

Remember to dress up as book characters next Friday – our postponed WORLD BOOK DAY

Black Soldiers in WW1

Last Thursday boys from Y5&6 gave a repeat performance of their presentation about the contribution of Black soldiers to the 1st and 2nd World War. Once again, their performance moved many of those present to tears - tears of pride, sadness and celebration. KGPS boys improved 100% on their previous performance, and reminded us all of the meaning of pride, effort and courage. Thank you to those parents who attended, and who took the time to stay and discuss ways of moving forwards with Black Achievement for KGPS pupils.

KGPS Roadshow

This week KGPS families found out about many of the exciting and free activities available to children in the local area. These after school and holiday activities are provided by voluntary organisations. The Young Brent Foundation arranged for the providers to set up their stalls during Learning Consultations so that families could meet with them. If you join a club as a result of contact through this event, please come and tell Ms Bonner about it!
