

Jack and the Beanstalk

Writing tasks

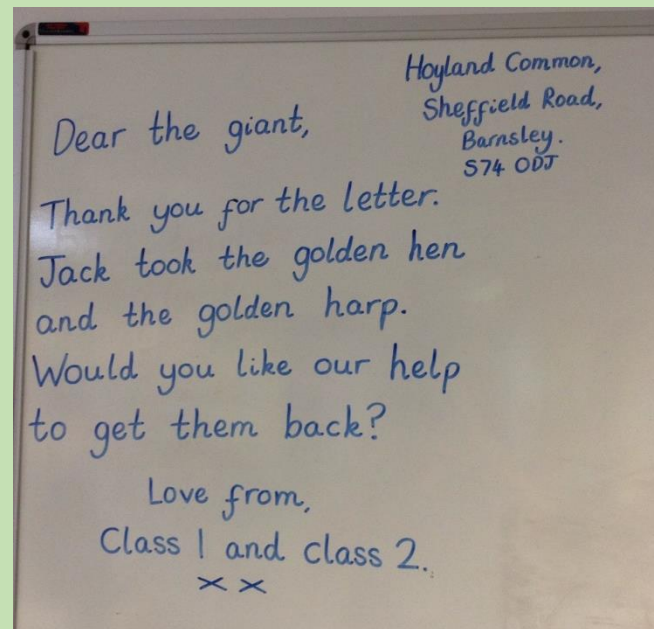

Task 1

When Jack stole the giant's belongings, he was not following our school rules of being Ready, Respectful and Safe.

He has had some time to think about his actions and would like to write a sorry letter to the giant. Imagine you are Jack and write a letter of apology to the giant.

Dear Giant in the castle.

I found your sad letter and I want to explain why we had to take your hen and cut down the beanstalk. I am very sorry for what we did.

Dear Giant,

I'm Jack, the boy with the ginger hair who has caused you lots of trouble. I thought I was in danger at your house, so I ran away without explaining myself. I just wanted to say sorry for stealing your things, and I would like to return them to you.

I'm hoping to plant some more magic beans in June to grow another huge beanstalk in July. I will climb up and bring back your things. Please promise to be gentle with me next time I see you. Please don't put me in a cage or a jar.

You were very generous to let me keep the hen. I have sold a golden egg and bought some new jeans and a sledge.

See you in July.

Jack
